Two years' guarantee. Sent post free to every Station in India.

MESSRS. FAVRE, LEUBA & Co. beg to draw particular attention to the above watches, and confidently recommend them to every person who wants to buy a watch : CHEAP, STRONG, and GOOD.

These watches are of moderate size, in an extremely well-made and tight-shutting German Silver case. The movement is protected inside by a glass dome.

The movement has a Patent Lever Escapement, built on the soundest scientific principles.

The watches are keyless, and the hands are set also through the keyless mechanism, so that there is no necessity of opening the watch.

The watches have a second hand.

The figures of the dial and the hands are left extra bold, so that the time can be seen instantly on a glance at the dial, and in nearly complete darkness.

The watch, as a whole, combines strength with all the conditions necessary to good time-keeping.

This watch has proved a complete success as a CAMPAIGN WATCH, and its usefulness is recognised by the daily increasing demand from all quarters of our Army in the field.

To Shikaries, Sportsmen, &c., these watches will prove to stand any amount of rough usage and handling.

We guarantee riding will not effect the working of these watches.

We dare confidently say that these watches, if treated with ordinary care, and cleaned once every two years, will give a 15 years good service.

Every watch is fitted in a wooden case, in which will be found a spare glass, and a spare mainspring.

We receive now regular shipments of these watches by each mail, and every order can for the future be executed by return post.

Only watches that have been examined and timed are despatched on orders.

2 years' guarantee. Packing and postage free.

FAVRE, LEUBA & CO.,

BOMBAY AND CALCUTTA.

N.B.—In order to protect our watches from inferior articles brought on the market under similar names, we engrave our name, or stamp our name, on all of them.

Illustrated Catalogues giving details of our enormous stock of pocket Watches, Clocks &c., sent free on application.

Our new Illustrated Catalogue for the coming season will appear shortly.

COMMERCIAL INTELLIGENCE

SATURDAY EVENING, Nov. 13, 1880.

ANOTHER withdrawal of £100,000 is advised from the Bank of England for North America, and the drain is evidently beginning to make itself felt at last, as the rate of discount in the open market has advanced from ¾ to ½ per cent. under the Bank. Consols, moreover, have declined ⅛ to 99⅞, and and French Rentes ¼ to 119, probably owing to the same cause. For Enfaced Rupee Paper Reuter reduces his quotations ⅛ in Fours and ¼ in Fours-and-a-half, making them 80½ and 87¾ respectively.

In General Produce, Cocoanut-oil is unchanged, but Coffee has undergone a material decline, Ceylon Plantation being quoted 1s. 6d. and G. O. Native 1s. per cwt lower. Seeds are unchanged with the exception of a decline of 3d. per quarter in Calcutta Linseed, to arrive.

Piece-goods in Manchester are reported quiet but steady at last Tuesday's prices.

The Liverpool Cotton market yesterday closed unchanged both as regards tone and price for ready Cotton, although deliveries were partially 1-32d. better, this month being given at 6⅝d. and January-February at 6 5-16d. per lb. In New York yesterday ready Mid. Uplands were unchanged at 10 15-16 cents, but February shipment receded from 11 to 10·95 cents per lb. owing, doubtless, to the heavy receipts at the ports for the day. This brings the figures up to within 3,000 bales of the corresponding week last year, and the total since 1st September is still 188,000 bales ahead of the same period last season.

The statistical position to-date, as shown by our usual weekly comparison, gives an increase in the Liverpool stock of 16,000 and in the total visible supply for all Europe of 120,000 bales, so that things are still tending in favour of lower prices.

The American Crop figures to date afford the following comparisons :—

	1880.	1879.	1878.
Week's Receipts	216,000	219,000	177,000
" Exports to U. K.	76,000	122,000	68,000
" " to Continent	34,000	66,000	59,000
Total Receipts since 1st Sept.	1,851,000	1,662,000	1,358,500
" Exports to U. K. "	638,000	650,000	434,700
" " to Continent "	313,000	253,000	193,000
" Stock in the Ports	774,000	578,000	514,000

The total visible supply of Cotton for all Europe on the 13th instant compares with the two previous years as follows :—

	1880.	1879.	1878.
Total supply of all kinds	2,140,000	1,836,000	1,534,180
" " Surats	251,000	276,740	251,420

For the U. K. only the figures are :—

Stock in Liverpool	423,000	287,670	281,790
" London	43,000	53,150	33,350
American Afloat	250,000	320,000	235,000
E. Indian "	34,000	29,000	71,000
	750,000	699,820	621,150
Price of Mid.-Uplands	6 7-16d.	6¾d.	5¾d.
" Fair Dhollera	5¾d.	5½d.	4½d.
Difference..	1 9-16d.	1¼d.	1¼d.

Bar Silver in London yesterday, according to Reuter, receded from 51 13-16d. to 51¾d. per oz. This is confirmed by private telegrams, but it is also added that supplies are limited.

EXCHANGE this morning opened at about yesterday's closing rates, but owing to the decline advised in Silver with a downward tendency. In the course of the forenoon it became apparent that there were more buyers than sellers, and a definite decline of 1-32d. was established, at which the market closes still tending easier. We quote :—

Bank Bills on demand	1s. 7 23-32d.	per Rupee.
Do. telegraphic	1s. 7 11-16d.	"
Do. 3 months' sight	1s. 7 13-16d.	"
Credits, 4 "	1s. 7 31-32d.	"
Documents, 3 "	1s. 8d.	"
Francs, 3 "	2f. 11c.	"

On Calcutta rates are unaltered.

GOVERNMENT PAPER has been somewhat steadier to-day at Rs. 97½ for Fours and Rs. 106½ for Fours-and-a-half. We have not heard of any business of extent, but unlike yesterday there have been buyers. Rates come from Calcutta the same as here.

SHARES, as a general rule, have been less active. Banks are unchanged, Colaba ; Land and Port Cannings are both Rs. 10 higher ; and Press shares are all very firmly held, in some cases for higher rates. Spinning and Weaving Mills, however, are not so strong, and in some instances a decline of Rs. 5 to Rs. 10 per share is quoted. There seems, though, no special reason for a fall, and the movement may therefore be taken as merely a slight reaction after the previous rapid advance.

COTTON has been extremely quiet to-day, with no change whatever in prices. For export the enquiry has been very limited, and we have not heard of a single transaction.

LINSEED is quiet and tending rather in buyers' favour at Rs. 6-14 for ready and Rs. 6-8 for May delivery. For Wheat a more active demand has again arisen, and Soft White has advanced to Rs. 32-8 per candy.

FREIGHTS show no new development. For ready shipment quotations are very firmly maintained, but for December there seems every probability that the supply of tonnage will be fully equal to the demand.

PIECE-GOODS are quiet but fairly steady. The demand from up-country is equal to about 500 packages a day, but more would probably be done if the large stocks here and on the way did not lead buyers to act with caution.

COALS are firm, with no sellers to arrive.

The Bombay Gazette

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 15, 1880.

We hear that considerable progress has been made with the "Staff Corps Defence" Fund, and that staff corps officers in all parts of India are giving the movement their support. Influential assistance has also been promised at home. It is proposed that a fund should be raised, sufficient to defray the expenses attending the preparation of a petition, which may be roughly estimated at about £700. In the event of the new pension rules, which have not yet been published, proving satisfactory, the subscriptions will be returned. Should, however, the new rules not be considered satisfactory, all the subscribers to the fund will be consulted as to their wishes, and the petition will be draughted in accordance with the views of the majority. At the same time, the best legal advice will be obtained, and every effort will be made to proceed in a legitimate manner, so that the tender feelings of those susceptible people, "the authorities," may not be hurt. The recent success of the Medical Department shows that the authorities are not disinclined to listen to reasonable proposals temperately urged. The justice of the claim now being put forward by the Staff Corps can hardly be questioned. At present the earlier pensions obtainable by Staff Corps officers are very inferior both to the pensions obtained after equal service by uncovenanted officers in this country and to those offered to the Royal Army. The latter not only get larger pensions, but count their total service for pensions. If the grant of increased pensions to Staff Corps officers of twenty to twenty-eight years' service would throw any great additional burden on the Indian Exchequer, strong arguments would be requisite to prove the propriety of incurring the extra expenditure ; but this will not be the case. The effect of the present rules is to keep officers in the country who are anxious to retire, but are unable to do so on account of the absurd inadequacy of the earlier pensions. Years ago a man could retire easily upon his captain's pension and the regimental bonus, assisted, perhaps, by some small private means or modest savings. Now-a-days, however, his pension of £190 a year will hardly pay the butcher's and coal-merchant's bills. It seemed good to those at the head of affairs to destroy the old bonus system, and now the want of some other inducement to retire is felt, and must be offered, if the Army is to be kept in an efficient condition. Under the present system officers who are sick of their work, and broken down, perhaps, in health, are kept out here, drawing large salaries, and pretending to do work which would be much more efficiently performed by subalterns drawing a third of the pay. By inducing some of these elderly gentlemen to retire the State will save the difference between the salary the senior officer has been drawing and that of the young officer who replaces him, plus the prospective value of the senior's chance of off-reckonings. The Government have admitted the advantage to be derived from buying out old officers by the annual scheme for the commutation of colonels' allowances, which is offered every year to a certain number of colonels of twenty-eight years' service. All that is now wanted by the officers of the Staff Corps is that the principle should be carried lower down and be made permanent. After twenty years' service many officers have still energy enough left to be able to turn their attention to something else. They can settle in the Colonies, or join friends at home or elsewhere in business. An army to be efficient requires many more subalterns and captains than majors and colonels. The first inducement to retire should be held out to officers when they first attain "field rank." This is the period when it is most necessary for the efficiency of the service that a certain proportion of officers should be induced to retire. It is also the period when officers can be most easily persuaded to go ; some will have come into small private means, some will have families living at home, some will be turning their attention to other matters. What is the present inducement offered to officers to go at this critical period ? A pension of £191 a year, while a pension of £1,100 a year is promised if they will only serve on for eighteen years more. No wonder the service is blocked with useless and discontented candidates for off-reckonings. In the Royal Army men are far more easily induced to retire, for nearly every officer has more or less private means ; yet it has been found necessary to offer far better pensions in return for twenty years' service at Dublin or Aldershot than Staff Corps officers receive for as many years passed between Dum Dum and Peshawur. And even these pensions are not deemed sufficient to keep up an adequate stream of promotion, for compulsory retirement after twenty years' service is introduced into the line for all officers who have not then attained the rank of major. Compulsory retirement, cannot, without direct breach of faith, be introduced into the Staff Corps, and it is, therefore, all the more necessary that the inducements to retire voluntarily should be amply sufficient to prevent an undue accumulation in the higher ranks. A due proportion should always exist between the pension and salary. Since the establishment of the Staff Corps all military salaries have been increased, and an additional inducement to officers to hang on has been established by the promise of off-reckonings after twelve years' service as lieutenant-colonel. So far, however, instead of pensions being increased in proportion to pay, they have actually been diminished ; for the old retirement funds are knocked on the head, and officers are no longer allowed to retire on the pension of their rank after twenty years' service. The tendency to undue accumulation of the higher ranks of officers is a necessary consequence of these changes, and something must be done to diminish the evil. Every field officer who is not wanted should, if possible, be induced to retire. The saving to the State from the retirement of each field officer, after providing for the performance of his duties by a junior officer, is amply sufficient to provide inducements to retire in the shape of a pension sufficient to support existence in England. If Government are content to devote the saving to this purpose, the pension difficulty may be solved and the Indian Army be placed upon a satisfactory footing in this respect. But, on the other hand, if the authorities think that they can make a large pecuniary saving by inducing officers to retire, they will find themselves mistaken. The funds will not be sufficient to secure increased efficiency and greatly diminished cost at the same time. In the greedy hope of securing both reform has already been delayed too long. Each year the difficulty of efficient reform increases, and will continue to increase for some time to come. We are naturally chiefly interested in this business as one which concerns the efficiency of the Army ; and the officers of the Staff Corps may be trusted to look after their own interests, but we will give them one bit of advice—Do not ask for too much ; find out what the

REVIEW OF TROOPS BY THE VICEROY.

(FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.)

LAHORE, Nov. 14.

The review at Mecan Mear yesterday comprised cavalry, artillery, and European and native infantry eight thousand five hundred men. The Viceroy and the Commander-in-Chief and their staffs were present. The whole formed an imposing and brilliant spectacle

At the close of the review the Viceroy addressed the Commander-in-Chief and the officers commanding regiments. He said:—It has been a very great pleasure to me to have the honour of meeting you on this occasion, worthy representatives of the British Army, European and native, and especially to have been thus introduced to our army in India. It would be impertinent in me as a civilian to express an opinion upon the bearing and appearance of the troops, yet I cannot resist saying how greatly I have been impressed by today's display of the discipline and power of the troops of our Queen-Empress upon this Indian soil, whether sent from England or raised in this country. His Excellency then briefly recalled the actions of the force in Afghanistan, and remarked how nobly the soldiers of England had vindicated the honour of their country. The march of General Stewart's force from Kandahar to Kabul and the fight at Ahmed Kheyl were noticed, and General Roberts's march from Kabul to Kandahar, which Lord Ripon called a great march, was pronounced to have been nobly accomplished; its speed and skill were admired by the English and Continental critics, and it was wound up by a battle which may be hoped to have a lasting effect. Lord Ripon acknowledged the services of the officers and regiments who guarded the lines of communications, and said our gratitude was equally due to those who performed that duty with such unvarying patience and such firmness in difficulties and trials quite as great as those undergone by their comrades who with better fortune were engaged in the front. The admirable discipline maintained by the British Army when occupying a foreign country, Lord Ripon acknowledged as the best proof of the true character of the Englishman. Lord Ripon then remarked on the magnificent cavalry regiments and splendid lines of unbroken infantry then before him; and concluded by stating that he had received a telegram from the Secretary of State, conveying Her Majesty's pleasure that in addition to the Afghan medal, six clasps should be attached for the Ali Musjid, Peiwar Kotal, Charasiab, Kabul, Ahmed Kheyl, and Kandahar actions, and a special decoration in the form of a bronze star to those who took part in the march of General Roberts' force from Kabul to Kandahar. This, said Lord Ripon, will be an incentive to deeds such as the troops have performed so loyally well, and for which in the name of Her Majesty I now thank you from the bottom of my heart.

THE CHAPTER OF THE BATH.

(FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.)

LARORE, Nov. 14.

At the investiture of the Order of the Bath tomorrow there will be no creations of companions of the Bath. The ceremony has been postponed. It will probably take place in Calcutta, as there are not members enough in the Punjab to form a chapter. Only Generals Stewart and Maude will be created Grand Cross Knight Commanders.

THE AFGHAN MEDAL.

(FROM THE PRESS COMMISSIONER.)

LAHORE, Nov. 13.

Her Majesty has graciously sanctioned six clasps for Ali Musjid, Peiwar Kotal, Charasiab, Kabul, Ahmed Khel, and Kandahar, and a star for General Roberts' march.

DR. HUNTER ON BRITISH ADMINISTRATION IN INDIA.

LONDON, Nov. 13.

Dr. Hunter, in his concluding lecture at Edingburgh, said, that British administration in India at the present day was superior to that of the Mogul, and even to the East India Company's rule. He pointed to the pure Government, the administration of justice, the establishment of police, the extension of education, and the institution of public works. Dr. Hunter advocated a larger employment of natives in the Government service; and what difficulties there may be, he said, in so employing them, are not due to any shortcomings of the Indian Government. Natives must reform themselves, marry prudently, and migrate when circumstances press. He also said that representative institutions in India are necessary.

Arrival—Mori Eilion.

It is rumoured that Colonel Bradford, C.S.I., will be appointed to succeed Sir Richard Meade as Resident at Hyderabad. In that case it is considered likely that Colonel J. Watson, C. B., V.C., will succeed Colonel Bradford in Rajputana.

Mr. Arthur Sketchley, though among us for the first time, is far from being a stranger, for by his writings we seem already to know him personally, since it is impossible to disconnect him with the sentiments and sayings of his heroine, Martha Brown, whom he has painted as "a lady as wouldn't never stoop to no low hactions and were never known but once to be overtook in a fault as was of weather as never did agree with them as is inclined to flesh." In spite of the prevailing heat, Mr. Sketchley hopes to produce the worthy matron in perfect form on Wednesday, 17th instant, at the Framjee Cowasjee Institute.

His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief was expected to arrive from Poona on Saturday last by the train that reaches the Boree Bunder station at 4-15 p.m. The guard of honour, consisting of 100 rank and file of the 21st Regiment, with band and regimental colours, under a European officer, which had been ordered to parade at the Boree Bunder station at 4 p.m., was not in attendance there; and it is believed that its attendance was countermanded since the publication of the regimental order. Five sowars of His Excellency's body-guard, however, were present at the station at the appointed time, and left disappointed on learning, after the arrival of the Poona train, that the Chief had not come. Mrs. Warre came by the train, and getting out at the Byculla station, proceeded to the "Wilderness," Malabar Hill. General Warre, a Poona paper states, was to leave that station yesterday for Ahmednagar, where he would inspect the troops, subsequently travelling to Bombay vid Manmad.

Mr. J. B. Lyall, Financial Commissioner in the Punjab, is, says the Pioneer, talked of as likely to succeed Mr. P. S. Melvill, C.S.I., as Resident at Baroda, when that officer leaves in March next. Mr. Lyall is a very popular man with natives, and in all respects would be likely to do well at Baroda.

In consequence of the prevalence of malarious fever at Kurrachee the 66th regiment is to be moved from that station to Khandalla, where it is to remain until required to embark for England, about the 20th January next.

Among the candidates who present themselves for the Matriculation Examination of the Bombay University to-day are Miss Cecilia Catherine Ward and Miss Constance Alice Rosselet, of the Scottish High School, Byculla.

We regret to hear of Major-General John Ross, who commanded in Calcutta in 1878 and who afterwards commanded a division of General Roberts's force in Afghanistan, where he suffered much from dysentery, that his friends fear the efforts he made to bear up to the end of the campaign have had such an effect on his constitution that a long time must elapse before his health will be in any way restored.

Rear Admiral Gore Jones, C. B., commanding the fleet on the East India station, and the officers of the men-of-war lying at Rangoon were entertained at a bachelors' ball there on the 29th October.

The Nawab of Bhawulpore has been pronounced by the Civil Surgeon of Mooltan, who went to see His Highness at the request of His Honour the Lieutenant-Governor, to be so unwell as to be unfit to attend the Viceroy's Durbar. His Highness has issued invitations for a fancy ball at his palace on the 26th; visitors are invited to remain at Bhawulpore till the 29th.

Of the distress in the North-West Provinces, the Pioneer writes:—According to the latest reports from Rai Bareli, it is very difficult still to estimate the probable outturn of the kharif crop as compared with average seasons, as the rainfall has been so patchy. Extraordinary efforts have been made, moreover, in some places to save jowar that seemed to be hopelessly lost, so that the latest reliable estimate of the quantity of this crop saved puts it down at three-tenths instead of one-fifth. Rice is a kharif staple of the district besides jowar, and the two crops together seem to occupy more than half of the whole kharif area. Bajra is a very light crop. Nor more than two-fifths of the usual area is likely to be sown for rabi. The scarcity of fodder is severely felt, though stalks of different kinds are in use now, or coming forward in a few weeks. Meanwhile, the constant irrigation from wells for the standing jowar and for the preparation of the ground for rabi,—work which exacts twelve hours' attention out of the twenty-four,—the construction of kutcha wells, the making of buckets and ropes,—all supplies work for the labouring classes, and wages which, if reduced, are still sufficient to keep them from starvation. Migration, on the other hand, is said to be increasing, though it is described as migration of a wholesome sort, not mere wandering. As soon as the kutcha wells now under construction are finished, the local authorities propose to grant various pending applications for tuccavi for the construction of pucca wells, tanks, and embankments.

We make "Tandem" a present of the following good reasons for not going to a volunteer—or any other—ball. They appear in this week's Bombay Guardian, culled from a paper by the Rev. T. L. Cuyler:—

"It [the 'promiscuous contact of the sexes' in the ball-room] breeds extravagance in dress, late hours, the spirit of envy, and many other lusts which war against the soul. It promotes self-indulgence, which is a growing bane and curse of the Church. Is the dancing-hall a department in the school of Christ? Shall our daughters cease to emulate the example of Dorcas and Lydia, and learn to play the part of the daughter of Herodias? The whole trend of the promiscuous dance is against moral purity and spirituality. The Romish Archbishop of Quebec has prohibited his Church members from engaging in the 'round dance,' which I understand to be a particular style of the dance which is peculiarly possessed with a devil. If dancing, then, like the theatre, is to be taken in the gross, let Christ's followers seek for unquestionable recreations, and make a clean sweep of the whole business."

A deputy to the Assistant to the Political Agent, Jhalawar, Kathiawar, was asked to resign on the ground that he was not suited to Kathiawar. The Bombay Review, conceiving that he must be a deeply injured individual, asked him to supply the particulars of his grievance, for grievance, of course, there must be. He announced that he had no grievance. Whereupon the Bombay Review came down heavily on him for his want of spirit. And the Indian Spectator says of him, "though we cannot call Mr. Bhugwandas a sneak, his conduct in baffling the inquisitive Bombay Review scarcely argues moral courage. Further, it is highly amusing to see the Don Quixote of the Review rushing to the rescue of distressed Aryans when these churls will have none of his chivalrous defence." This is the case of Canning's knife-grinder in the flesh.

The Albert Mill is the only concern, whose shareholders and creditors were wise enough to effect a compromise and withdraw it from liquidation under the High Court. The result has proved highly beneficial to the shareholders in particular, for the shares of that company, on which Rs. 1,700 had been paid up, and which were at one time totally worthless, were lately quoted in the Exchange at Rs. 700 each and even as high as Rs. 850 each, and it became known that the well-known merchants of the place, Messrs. A. M. Gubbay & Co., had accepted the agency of the mill. The company is, we understand, to be shortly re-constructed, and several additions and improvements effected, which will make the mill second to none in Bombay.

The Bombay Review has painful doubts as to Major Baring's soundness on certain points. It augurs ill for the young Finance Minister's appreciation of the present wants of India that the extension of the railway system, on the necessity of which every one is agreed, should have been singled out by him—as the telegram makes appear—for gratuitously forbidding remarks. This ostentatious declaration of a stinted and grudging policy will not be lost on our Chambers of Commerce. They have been awakened, though as we think only too tardily, to their duty in promoting the earnest and energetic promotion of productive public works. Many of their members have begun to study this great subject, and fully appreciate both its industrial and financial aspects. Thus challenged, as they have been beforehand, they must now grind up their loins to the task. They will, perhaps, more carefully formulate their demands; but they will also renew and extend them. As the new Finance Minister denies them railways, they must now demand not only railways, but also irrigation and water-carriage.

The absence of news from General Macgregor's force in the Marri country causes the Pioneer some uneasiness. "Kahan," the Allahabad paper writes, "is the Marri capital, if such a term is not a misnomer, and General Macgregor has, no doubt, had some sharp skirmishes on his way to that place. Soon after he left Sibi it was reported that the tribe were gathering, but would not contest his advance until he was well within their hills. His brigade consists of the 3rd Punjab Cavalry, six mountain guns of Douglas's Battery (11-9 R. A.) 2-60th Rifles, 2nd Sikhs, 4th and 5th Goorkhas. The route this force took seems to have been northward from Sibi to Thull, where the main body was about the 28th October, a strong detachment with two guns having been left at Mundai, thirty miles to the south-west. By advancing from Thull southwards upon Kahan, General Macgregor would cut off the Marris from any aid they might expect to get from the numerous Pathan tribes to the north; and we hope his instructions were such as to justify this movement, for Kahan lies in the heart of the Marri country, and our troops cannot visit it too often. The brigade is made up of seasoned soldiers who have seen much campaigning; and if the Marris have really attempted to surround them and cut off all communication with Sibi—which the absence of news for so long leads one to suspect—there will probably have been an action fought of some importance. Until the Marris are quite subdued the new railway will always be in danger, and it would be better, perhaps, if the power of the tribe were now thoroughly broken while our troops are in the field than that they should be given 'another chance.' Their success in the raid upon the Hurnai section of the railway must be cancelled by severe punishment."

The Rangoon Times objects to the expenditure incurred by the Government of India for the maintenance of Burmese refugees. There are about thirty refugees from Upper Burmah in Rangoon, who receive pensions ranging from Rs. 150 to Rs. 10 a month each. This must amount to a tidy sum; and contemporary asks how long is this state of things to continue, and are the people of British Burmah to be taxed to pay these pensions? The Limbin Prince receives Rs. 150 a month and some of the Burmese ladies Rs. 50 to Rs. 80 a month. The Nyoung Yan Prince in Calcutta receives Rs. 1,200 a month. The Nyoung Oke, previous to his last escapade, also received a similar sum; and we suppose still receives it. "It is time that this expenditure was brought to a close some way or other. Theebaw, of course, will not pay, nor is there any way of recovering the money that has been spent by Government on these refugees."

The Princess Dolgorouki, the Vienna Presse states, was married to the Czar as the younger niece of the Governor-General of Moscow, and not as the sister of Court Albetynski. "The negotiations respecting the future position of the Emperor's wife and her children are still pending. It is proposed that the latter shall be recognised as Princes of the blood, and rank immediately after the Grand Dukes. Should the Czarewitch consent to this arrangement, the Emperor will appoint him co-regent, and transfer to him the reins of government, his Majesty retaining his Imperial privileges and retiring permanently to Livadia."

One sharp arrow of criticism aimed by the little Kandahar paper at the Pioneer's special correspondent and the free abuse of the Bombay Army which distinguished some letters from the front published in that journal, and presumably written by its special, has struck the gold. We quoted some days ago a paragraph from the Kandahar News commenting on a statement from one of the Pioneer's letters regarding the Bombay troops at Kandahar, that "directly they came up it became a common practice for officers to go about the streets and cantonments with drawn sword or pistol in hand, ready for the gay Ghazi." Our Kandahar contemporary pointed out that "if the Pioneer's correspondent had taken the trouble to enquire, he would have found out that the Bengal officers and troops under General Stewart were in the habit of going about similarly armed, so that the Bombay troops only followed their good example," and suggested that if all the statements of its correspondent were to be judged by this one, the Pioneer was to be congratulated on the mass of valuable information it had obtained from Kandahar. Mr. Hensman writes us to say he neither wrote, nor does he know who wrote, the statement in question. Perhaps the Pioneer will explain, in justice to Mr. Hensman, from what source it did obtain this and several other equally reliable bits of information regarding the Bombay Army in Afghanistan.

OVUM IN OVO.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE "BOMBAY GAZETTE."

Sir,—My cook was breaking a fowl's egg for culinary purposes the other day and found inside it another small egg, about the size of a sparrow's, which contained the yolk. The inner egg was chocolate coloured. As I have never heard of such a case before, I thought it might interest your readers.

CUSTOMS OF LOW-CASTE NATIVES.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE "BOMBAY GAZETTE."

Sir,—What can Dr. Cook know of the customs of low-class natives? He may take this cue, which he evidently has done, from the houses of the wealthy which he visits in his professional capacity, and where he sees "the aunts, and the sisters, and the cousins" under the same roof and protection; but precious little of this sort of thing goes on with bullock-cart drivers and the labouring class—they may live in the same house, but they all work, even the little child. Has Dr. Cook ever visited any of our Bombay mills? If not, let him go and judge for himself. Men, women, and children come flocking out after their day's work, and those who are not employed at mill-work are attending to their Bagee, and their sugar-cane, and their boota, while the husbands and brothers are driving carts. Anyone who has lived either at Matoonga or Parell (not Malabar Hill!) will know this. Dr. Cook, like a good many more Englishmen in the service, looks upon things from too great an elevation: hence it is that so little that is really practical is done for this great Empire. Science may be a very good thing in administering doses of medicine, but in municipal financial economy we need, perhaps, a little more of Mr. Duxbury's practical sciences, although he is as hard as nails and knows how many beans make five; still in this instance, he might be met half way. It does seem absurd that a man should get Rs. 9 a month for doing nothing else but to take the tails of bullocks to and fro from the town to the Flats. It would, perhaps, be too much after this exertion to expect him to fill or unfill his cart, but an arrangement might be made for a certain number of men to be parcelled off to so many carts. Let them have their rendezvous after helping to fill, and wait for the next lot of empty carts. A few men might be kept on the Flats to help to unfill.

Polka	Drink, Puppy, Drink		Albert.

The High Court.—The High Court re-opens to-day on the termination of the October vacation.

Fair.—The annual Tripooree Poornima fair will be held at Walkeshwur to-morrow (Tuesday), and will continue for four successive days.

Assault.—Rajub Ali was on Saturday last fined Rs. 7 by Mr. Dosabhoy Framjee for assaulting Fattooma, woman, on the night previous at the Girgaum police station.

Theft at Rampart Row.—Heerjee Khetsey, residing on the 4th storey of a house on Rampart Row, East, Fort, reported to the police the theft of a silver lota, valued at Rs. 35, from his residence on Friday last. Enquiries are in progress.

Inquest.—A coroner's inquest was held on Saturday last at the Esplanade on view of the body of a Mahomedan mendicant named Hyder, who died while lying down by the side of the Nacoda's Tank. The verdict was that "the death of the deceased was caused by phthisis."

Fire.—A fire broke out on Friday night last in a small jowlee hut belonging to Dial Dongersey, at Parell, which was completely burnt down to the ground within a short time. The fire is said to have originated by the careless use of a naked oil-lamp. The damage is estimated at Rs. 15.

A Breach of the Vaccination Act.—Allarakia Munjee and Hurjee Govind were on Saturday last fined respectively Rs. 5 and Rs. 3 by Mr. C. P. Cooper for neglecting to present their children for vaccination, as required under the provisons of the Vaccination Act.

Theft.—Sulliman Oosman, a ramoosee in the employ of the Dinshaw Manockjee Petit Spinning and Weaving Mill, was on Saturday last convicted by Mr. Dosabhoy Framjee of stealing a piece of wood and a gunny bag, valued three annas, the property of that mill company. He was sentenced to one month's rigorous imprisonment.

A Bull-fight Stopped by the Police.—At Secunderabad a very attractive feature of the Devalee to native ears is a savage entertainment provided by the gowlie section of holiday-makers, known as buffalo-fight, with which they wind up. It comes off annually on the ground near the Native Infantry rifle range. In the afternoon of Wednesday last an immense crowd assembled of both sexes, including, of course, the milkmen and milkwomen of the station. Several buffaloes were brought into the arena, and all seemed to promise a gratifying spectacle to those who delight in such; but their consternation may be well imagined when an inspector and a large body of policemen put in an appearance, and forbade the fight. The precaution taken by the police authorities is much to be commended, and it is to be hoped it may have the effect of putting an end to such brutal pastimes. In past seasons it frequently happened that one animal gored another to death, and last year an infuriated buffalo charged the crowd, by which several persons were seriously hurt. The owner of the winning buffalo usually lays out the stakes in liquor, and entertains the whole fraternity.—Deccan Herald.

CHARGE OF CHEATING THE BOMBAY TRADESMEN.

William Murray was charged on Saturday last before Mr. C. P. Cooper with the above offence. Mr. Hore appeared for the prisoner, and Mr. H. W. Payne for the prosecutor.

Captain Walshe, examined by Mr. Hore, stated.—My name is Francis Walter Walshe. I am superintendent of H. M.'s House of Correction. The accused is a prisoner there. I remember the 29th October last. Complainant called on the morning of that day in connection with the accused. He spoke to me. Complainant asked my permission to see the accused. I asked him what was his business. He said that he had been advised that he might not succeed in the prosecution, and therefore that he might be exposed to an action of damages, and consequently if he could get back the various articles, and if the accused would pay him the expenses to which he had been put, he would withdraw or compromise the charge. I permitted him to see the accused in my presence, and when he made that offer. I stated it did not lie in my power to compromise any criminal case, but that it would lie in the hands of the magistrate. I stated to the complainant that I should think it my duty to tell the magistrate what had occurred. Complainant and accused had some conversation in the passage outside, which I did not hear. I wrote to the magistrate the same morning. (Mr. Hore tendered the letter in evidence. Mr Payne objected. The court decided that it could not be received as evidence, but might be handed to the witness to refresh his memory as to any fact which took place, and the letter was handed to witness.)

Mr. James Morris, examined by Mr. Hore, stated.—I am a foreign agent or fancy goods. I live in the Fort. I have seen this ring (exhibit E.) before in my office. The accused brought it to me. I think it was in September or the beginning of October. He asked me if I would buy it. I said I am not able to buy it, but I might be able to sell it for you. He said he would give me a commission if I could sell it for him. I said perhaps the man to whom I might sell it might not have the cash to pay for it at once. He said if he were a good man, he would give him time. He mentioned the price—I think Rs. 900. I was to get five per cent. commission if I sold it.

Cross-examined by Mr. Payne.—I am a Roumanian. I think the accused is a German. I saw him here two years ago. I do not know where he has been since. I do not know what he was doing in Bombay then. I think he was here eight or twelve days then. The accused was then going under the name of Rosenberg, and staying at an hotel near the G. I. P. Railway. I was then introduced to him by Mrs. Braham. Mrs. Braham kept a milliner's shop in Bombay. I had no business transactions with him then. I do not know where the accused was before he came back to Bombay. When I next saw the accused in Bombay he was under the name of Manning, three or four months ago. I have had no business transactions with the accused except about the ring. He did not leave the ring with me for sale. I said I would see the party who wanted to buy it, and let him know. Mr. Naranjee was the party. I can produce him. I spoke to him about the ring. He said he did not want it, and refused to take it. I did not see accused after that. The last time I saw accused he spoke about the ring.

A Post Office clerk, examined by Mr. Hore, stated.—My name is Francis Valledaris. I see this envelope, exhibit No. 27. The mark on this is the Sea Post-mark, 9th October, the day on which the letter was posted. It arrived in Bombay on 1st November, that is, the day the letter was delivered. I see this envelope; this has the post-mark 14th October. This is the mark of the Suez Post Office. This is not the post-mark put on a letter posted at Aden. This letter arrived in Bombay on 1st November. I see this envelope. It was posted on board the steamer on the 9th October. This has the Suez mark of 14th October although it did not go to Suez. neither did No. 27. I see this envelope (exhibit No. 22). This is marked Sea Post Office, 14th October. This arrived in Bombay on 1st November. These letters have arrived at midnight, and not have been delivered till the next day.

Cross-examined by Mr. Payne.—It is usual for the Sea Post Office to impress the stamp of the date the mail left Suez. The post-mark has also reference to the date the letter was posted; likewise the post-mark the 9th October has no reference to the day the letter was posted. It simply shows the day the mail left Bombay. I do not say on what day the letters were posted. I can only say they were posted on the voyage of that mail. The same refers to the post-marks of all the other letters.

Re-examined by Mr. Hore.—There is no way of telling on which day they were posted.

A. Cunningham, examined by Mr. Hore, stated.—My name is Arthur Cunninghame. I am a prisoner in H. M.'s House of Correction. I know the accused. I think I have seen this board before. I think I have seen it outside accused's office. I had occasion to go to accused's office. I went there to negotiate a loan about the 26th or 27th of August last. I had been informed that the accused had been in the habit of lending money. I handed him a bill for collection, and received a small loan from him of Rs. 20; and since then I have received from him several other small sums. The accused did not lend me more, because he was not sure my security was good. The bill came from the Agra Bank, London. I was on friendly terms at one time with the accused. He took me one day in the early part of September to Mr. Marck's shop. The accused showed me a watch that I wished to purchase. I told the assistant in the shop that my friend would call and pay for it. I told the accused the shop stated it would be quite sufficient if accused would be security. The accused said he was not sure my money would arrive.

Cross-examined by Mr. Payne.—I did not buy the watch. I also gave another bill on the Hongkong and Shanghai Bank through the accused for collection, which was dishonored. Both bills, were drawn on a gentleman in London. I told the accused I wanted a few rupees from him. I had given a bill to him for £120. I was living then at Watson's Hotel, and had no occupation. I learned from a gentleman at the hotel that the accused was in the habit of giving loans. I also learnt it from an advertisement in the paper. I received Rs. 50 in in all from accused. John Mahomed and Asquith and Lord were the only persons I referred to the accused. I have referred to them, but I am sure that I could give for reference. The accused did not authorise me to give his name for reference. The accused told me not to incur debt till my money arrived. The accused lent me the money for friendship.

William Henry Sargent, a chemist, said that he had had dealings with the accused once in respect of some jewellery. He received Rs. 125 from the accused on the deposit of the jewellery with him. There were nine rings deposited, but one of them was missing. Witness called on the accused with reference to a letter from him. Accused said he was going home shortly, and would be back in about two months to re-open his business.

Cross-examined.—I paid a monthly interest of Rs. 3-12 on the sum advanced, which came to about 30 per cent. The accused paid me for the ring he lost.

Henry James Hayter, a constable of the Bombay Water Police, said that he had seen the accused on the P. & O. steamer "Cuzco" on board the outgoing mail. He asked him where he was going. He said he was going to Suez. He complained of being ill. He said he would be back soon. He was not hiding himself. He met him at the gangway. He said that his brother had gone to Australia and he was going to meet him at Suez.

Cross-examined.—The accused had a portmanteau and some clothes tied up in his cabin. Witness went on board at half-past four when accused was there. The accused said that he was coming back from Suez.

Mr. Fraser Hore, solicitor, being re-called, said that when he accosted the accused him produced what showed him a newspaper. Witness read a letter that was then in the hands of the accused. Witness remembered the day Mr. Lepel Griffin went home. He went on board that steamer. He remembered seeing accused on board the steamer.

Cross-examined.—I am sure I received no letter about the agreement from the accused. I cannot be certain that the conversation I had with the accused took place a day or two after the mail had left. I did not speak to the accused on board the steamer.

Mr. Day, cross-examined by prisoner stated.—My name is Joseph Day. I am corresponding clerk in the firm of Messrs. C. Marcks and Co. I know you by sight. I cannot call to mind when or where I first saw you. I believe it might have been in the old shop. We have done repairs for you at the old shop. You called many times after the new shop was opened. You had an account of the watch. You had an account since you were back. I cannot say who gave it you. You bought the watch on a Sunday morning. Mr. Marcks was present at the time. We cannot remember what day the watch was not ask for any payment at the time. Mr. Marcks went to Poona shortly after you purchased the watch. Before he went to Poona you gave the firm an order for two sets of Trichinopoly jewellery. I received an order for Trichinopoly jewellery. You asked for quotations first. To the best of my belief they were sent to you. I have been to your office in Elphinstone Circle. I believe the first time was on 20th September. I do not recollect you showing me a letter about two sets of Trichinopoly jewellery. I believe I have seen a letter stating that the order for Trichinopoly jewellery has been placed, and would leave here on 26th September by parcel post. When the order for jewellery was given there was no agreement made about the payment. I remember you afterwards cancelled one set. I cannot say if Mr. Marcks was in Bombay when the order was cancelled. I believe he was. I do not think I or Mr. Marcks ever asked you for a reference. Mr. Marcks went to Poona somewhere about 9th September. Mr. Marcks told me before he left that he expected the accused. I am not aware if Mr. Marcks made any enquiry about your firm. I did not. I took care not to sell you anything myself. You were always offering me cheques, but I turned it off by saying I did not want the money. I never knew any of your cheques come back unpaid. Mr. Marcks was away, and I took care in what I did. I did not take your cheques because the price you wanted the things at was under the price I could sell it at. I sold you nothing else on that day. I don't think I said I will refer your offer for a ring and a pin to Mr. Marcks in Poona. This is the horse-shoe pin. I can't say what the figures are. You might have offered me cash. You always said cash. You might have offered me an opal ring for sale. I can't say. I swear I never offered you Rs. 50 for an opal. You sent me a letter from Mr. Marcks. I delivered the pin to you at your first office. The conditions were that the ring would be delivered to you later on. I believe nothing was said about payment. When the pin was delivered you might have been indebted to me for Rs. 600. I never made any demand for money myself. I do not think any one was sent to demand money. I believe you paid Rs. 200 on account through Mr. Marcks. He accepted your cheque. On the day I delivered the diamond pin there was a police officer in your office about a theft. I went back with you to Mr. Marcks' shop. I know you had this ring on approval. We have a book in which we enter articles that go out on approval. I cannot call to recollection whether I or Mr. Brandon gave you the diamond ring. There was no time stated when the ring was to be returned. I have frequently seen you wearing the ring. You said you would try to sell it. I remember you returned it. This receipt is signed by Mr. Brandon. It is most probable the watch and receipt were sent on the same day. A few days afterwards you sent for the ring again for sale. I think it was the 9th October. You had the ring and pin as you had had it before you sent for it. I consider I was justified in handing you the ring. I did not think you would run away. The ring was entered in the approval book at Rs. 950. I don't say I did say the terms were cash on delivery. There was nothing mentioned the first time you took the ring, whether it was cash or no cash. I do not recollect if there was anything said about cash when the Trichinopoly jewellery was ordered. If the order had stood for the two sets, the two sets would have been delivered. I sent the set of Trichinopoly jewellery to your office. It was an old transaction, and no bill was sent. What are you asking about sending the bill later on, you went off the very day! You might have told me Mr. Marcks had asked you for a loan of Rs 1,000. We were on very friendly terms. Mr. Marcks may have told you that I was frequently drunk in business. We should not control the place of sale for the ring. You should have asked before sending it to England. I never asked you to return the ring.

Cross-examined by Mr. Payne.—I had nothing to do with the terms on which the ring was last delivered. I do not believe I personally arranged the terms with the accused on the first occasion.

The case was remanded till to-day at 11 a. m.

BOMBAY MUNICIPAL CORPORATION.

The adjourned meeting of the Corporation was held on Friday afternoon, when there were present:—The Hon. Rao Saheb V. N. Mandlik (chairman), Sir F. Souter, Major Merewether, Captain Morland, Dr. Blaney, Dr. Pinkerton, Dr. Cook, and Messrs. E. B. Carroll, C. Douglas, J. R. Duxbury, E. R. Freeborn, J. Gordon, G. Geary, J. Greaves, D. E. Gostling, Cowasjee Hormusjee, James Greaves, H. E. Jacomb, W. Maidment, F. Mathew, P. Peterson, W. M. Wood, Atmaram Pandurang, Bomonjee Pestonjee Master, Byramjee Dadabhoy, Byramjee Nasserwanjee Seval, Dinanath Raghunath Khote, Dossabhoy Framjee, Fazulbhoy Cassumbhoy Gangjee, Goculdass Jugmohundass, Hirjeebhoy Ardaseer Dady, Homejee Cursetjee Dady, Hormusjee Dadabhoy, Hormusjee Nowrojee Saklatwalla, Hurkissondass Narrotumdass, Hurrychund Sadashiv, Jamsetjee Jamsetjee Pallonjee Kapadia, Janardhan Gopal Karetay, Lukmedass Khimjee, Muncherjee Cowasjee Banajee, Nanabhoy Byramjee Jeejeebhoy, Pestonjee Byramjee Suntook, Nowrozjee Furdoonjee, Rustomjee Chandabhoy, Raghoonath Narayen Bhide, Rahimtoola Mahommed Sayani, Shantaram Narayen, Tribhowandass Varjeevandas, and Vundrawund Purshotumdass.

THE RAISING OF THE TULSI DAM.

Mr. Nowrojee Furdoonjee, when the executive engineer for new works was brought forward by Dr. Blaney, said he had no objection to urge with regard to any of the items, for the works were, in his opinion, necessary and desirable, the Corporation being happily in a sound financial condition. He had, however, one proposition to submit, which was not in the shape of an objection. He wished to propose the amalgamation of items Nos. 2 and 3 in the new works, which at present were separate. No. 2 was for raising the Tulsi dam 6 feet at an estimated cost of Rs. 58,000, and the other was for special improvement to the Tulsi-water supply, Rs. 60,000. He would submit to the Corporation the advisability of having one item instead of two, and of inserting in the budget an item of Rs. 1,18,000 for the purpose of increasing the storage capacity of the Tulsi lake to the extent of raising it ten feet. The sum of Rs. 58,000 separately shown in the budget would not go far enough to give them the additional supply which they required for the Tulsi district. There was an admitted deficiency of the Tulsi supply as regards domestic consumption and for drainage purposes. That important section of then drainage works which was now under construction would soon be completed, and an additional water-supply would be required for it. Without it the drainage scheme would be a failure, and would give rise to disease instead of promoting the health of the inhabitants of the city, which it was designed to do. Therefore he was confident that his proposal would meet with the approval of the Corporation. It was true that some more money would afterwards be required for the purpose of obtaining ground in the neighbourhood of the lake, but for this means would subsequently be found, on examining what the requirements in the matter were. On this occasion he would request them to insert, instead of the two items, the whole sum of Rs1,18,000 for the purpose of increasing the storage capacity of the Tulsi lake, so that it would give an increase of 195 days' supply. That addition would, he trusted, go far to relieve the wants of the city, coupled with the steps which were being taken to check and prevent waste of water. They would remember that in unfortunate years they sometimes had a short rainfall, and in that case, if they increased the capacity of the Tulsi lake, it would hold more than a year's supply. He need hardly say how valuable that would be, for otherwise the lake would remain dry in a year when there was a scanty rainfall and all their costly Tulsi water works and Malabar Hill reservoir would be of no use. Contemplating the contingency, which might arise, he asked them to sanction the proposal he had made.

After some remarks by Mr. Mathew, which were totally inaudible at the back of the hall,

Mr. Nowrojee said that both the Consulting Engineer and the Executive Engineer had no objection to urge in regard to the proposal for raising the Tulsi lake 10 feet. If a detailed report had been sent to the Municipal Commissioner, and, so far as he was informed, they were in favour of increasing the storage capacity of the lake.

Mr. Hormusjee Dadabhoy said he considered item No. 3 conveyed no precise information. He should like to know what works were intended to be covered by this sum of Rs. 60,000.

The Municipal Commissioner said that when the list of new works was being considered, it was proposed the dam should be raised 3 feet, so as to get two months' extra supply; then it was proposed to be raised 6 feet, and Rao Saheb suggested that a further sum of Rs. 60,000 should be set aside to pay for further

PHOSPHO! PHOSPHO!! PHOSPHO!!!

A NON-ALCOHOLIC SPARKLING RESTORER.

THIS new BEVERAGE, which has been under trial for some time past, is pronounced on competent authority to be an excellent TONIC RESTORER in all those forms of nervous disorder in which Phosphorus and Iron are indicated. As it stimulates and invigorates both the MIND and the BODY, we have no hesitation in stating that it is one of the most invaluable NERVINE TONICS extant, and is especially beneficial in constitutions enfeebled through OVERWORK, NERVOUS DEBILITY, and EXHAUSTION. Though a medicinal BEVERAGE, the taste of the salts entering into its composition has been almost completely disguised, and rendered agreeable to the palate, and may therefore be taken in the place of ordinary aerated water.
